A NEW ORDER - GOD'S LOVE FOR THE POOR

As we journey along with St Luke in his gospel outlining Jesus' journey to Jerusalem, our gospel today is at the beginning of that journey where Jesus comes down from a mountain where he has been in prayer with his heavenly Father. He has called his twelve disciples to accompany him as he wishes to contact many people who are yearning to listen to his word and be cured of their diseases.

Luke records Jesus saying it is the poor, the hungry and those who weep will find the kingdom of God with its satisfaction and laughter. Jesus is concerned about the lived experiences of the poor, the hungry and those who suffer. Genuine people are very dissatisfied with the present order of suffering and are open to the new order Jesus brings.

Jesus warns his disciples that the rich and powerful will not accept his new order and will persecute the disciples for promoting a new just world order as the prophets in the past who promoted God's plans. Jesus condemns strongly the rich and those who fill their lives in pursuit of wealth and human success. Jesus' words are direct and challenging.

GOD'S PREFERENTIAL LOVE FOR THE POOR

For St Luke, the poor were not just the poor in spirit (as in St Matthew's gospel 5:3); they were economically impoverished, the people on the margins, pushed there by a society that did not take seriously the teaching of Moses and the prophets.

The poor are specially loved by God, not so much because of what they are, but because of what God is—the compassionate defender of the weak and powerless (Deut 10:18, Amos 2:6-7). As the liberation theologian Gustavo Gutierrez wrote in 1991: God has a preferential love for the poor not because they are necessarily better than others, morally or religiously, but simply because they are living in an inhuman situation that is contrary to God's will. The ultimate basis for the privileged position of the poor is not in the poor themselves but in God, in the graciousness and universality of God's love.

The Bishops of USA published a pastoral letter "Economic Justice for all" - Decisions (for the poor) must be judged in the light of what they do for the poor, what they do to the poor, and what they enable the poor to do for themselves (Par.24).

Our option for the poor is to be preferential not exclusive, respectful not denigrating, enabling not patronizing.

THANKS AND WELCOME

We thank Fr Frank Moloney SDB for his service to us in recent years in leading us at our Sunday Masses. Now he has been appointed to serve in the Clifton Hill / Collingwood Parish.

We welcome Fr Peter Hoang SDB as the new Rector and Community Leader at Sunbury. He began his teaching ministry 30 years ago in Sunbury and has since served as a teacher and priest in Victoria and Tasmania mostly. He has also now been appointed Vice Provincial of the Salesians in Australia. Fr Peter will lead us at Sunday Mass sometimes.

LONG LIFE AS A RELIGIOUS

Last Saturday, Br Brendan (earlier Bertinus) Feehan F.M.S entered eternal life in his 100th year on earth. Born in Melbourne, he went to Assumption College, Kilmore and a year later joined the Marist Brothers. At one stage he was the Leader of the southern Australia Province of the Brothers. He worked in Forbes NSW for 34 years. At the age of 97, he still drove a car around Melbourne to obtain the groceries for the ten Brothers living in retirement in North Fitzroy. Br Brendan was very caring and a great host.
