Parish Vision: Christlike relationships of friendship and faith, valuing one another and sharing our gifts for the good of all

THE LOVE OF OUR HEAVENLY FATHER

In the daily news, we learn of violence towards people, stealing, and a lack of forgiveness. In contrast, our Gospel reading today reveals God's love as so overwhelming. He loves us totally, however hateful, sinful and unworthy we are. There is no way to express this love in our own lives except by modelling ourselves on Christ, the heavenly man, and loving our enemies as he loves them.

It is then "you will have a great reward, and you will be daughters and sons of the Most High". (Luke 6:35)

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES

As we continue to read Chapter 6 of Luke, we learn of the new order of loving, Jesus presents to his disciples. He gives some practical details of loving - to love our enemies, to do good to those who hate us and pray for those who treat us badly.

As challenging as their teaching is for us, imagine how difficult it was for the early disciples who were living under the occupying army of the Romans who could bully and plunder them at will.

Why is the command to love so important in the Christian tradition? We love because God loved us first. We will become his loved children. We then transcend worldly values - of 'an eye for an eye'.

COMPASSIONATE LOVING

Christian love is not being passive, rather being sensitive to the feelings of others and not exploiting their experience. We must come to understand that those who hate are in great need, often having broken and divided hearts.

Christians are to show compassion to all, never judging nor condemning, but always pardoning. This is the only way to break the spiral of violence.

FORGIVENESS BRINGS US FREEDOM

Viktor Frankl, the Viennese Jewish psychiatrist imprisoned in the Nazi death camps, wrote about "the last of human freedoms" the ability to choose one's attitude to a given set of circumstances." ("Man's Search for Meaning" 1969) This ultimate freedom helped him and others survive the death camps. To love and not hate, to bless and not to curse, to be generous and not demanding, to be compassionate and not self-centered - the choice is always there.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

To George Lawson as he celebrates his 90th birthday. George used to care for the garden around St Anne's Church.

OUR PRAYERFUL SYMPATHY

We offer to Susan O'Connor whose husband of fifty years Michael aged 71 years entered eternal life suddenly due to a heart failure. Michael volunteered to serve in the Australian Army in Vietnam during the war. Michael and Susan were blessed with three children, Richard, Catherine and Paul. Michael and Susan came to Sunbury in 2003. His Funeral Mass was celebrated on Friday, concluding at the Bulla Cemetery.
