THE TESTING OF GOD'S SON

In the rhythm of the Church year Lent is the time to stop and look within, the inner truth of our lives. Our parish liturgy team have chosen: "Be still and know I am God... a God who heals" as our theme for Lent 2022.

The ashes of last Wednesday remind us that our life is finite and we are mortal. In our busy lives, we can try to deny this. "I am invincible" - with new medical technologies. We are tempted to deny our morality and forget our utter dependence on the God who holds us in life. Our life is not our own. It is God-given.

THE TEMPTATIONS OF JESUS

Prior to Jesus going out into the wilderness, he was baptised in the Jordan River and a heavenly voice acclaimed: "You are my beloved Son". At the first and third temptation the devil questions Jesus about the central fact of his life - "If you are the Son of God - turn these stones into bread"... "jump off the pinnacle of the Temple and God will save you".

The devil is questioning: "Do you really believe you are God's son? The devil voices the inner doubt Jesus, and all of us experience, when we consider the overwhelming love of God for us. Could God really love me? Sometimes we think if God really loves me, then bad things will never happen, later the floods in NSW and Queensland - or when bad things do happen, they are signs God does not love us.

Our second reading today from St Paul paraphrases the words of Moses in the first reading that God is very near us, that we are God's beloved and we do not need to go to extraordinary lengths to find God. The word is very near to you; it is in your heart.

DEALING WITH OUR TEMPTATIONS

We often feel alone when faced with difficult choices and temptations. There are four things to remember: Temptation is not sin. Only when we freely and knowingly choose to act on temptation is sin involved.

Secondly, temptations often appear as good things, but often they have a destructive sting in the tail. We need to be very alert to all the consequences of what we say and do and learn from our experiences.

Thirdly, the more we give into temptations, the more immune we become to seeing that there is anything wrong with our actions - deceiving ourselves it's 'not that bad'.
St Ignatius of Loyola taught the worst temptations are greed, pride and riches. It is wise to name what's going on, and attend to the pattern of the temptation quickly and consistently. Jesus was tempted and shows us we can choose life ahead of death.

The three temptations of Jesus show a likely pattern in our temptations:-

1. I want the whole world to change to satisfy me.
2. I want to exercise power over others, manipulate others.
3. I want to take stupid risks and come out unharmed.

The devil has been defeated by Christ on the Cross. Secondly, we are beloved children of God through the gift of Baptism and God loves all people.

THREE TEMPTATIONS REVEAL THE NATURE OF JESUS' MINISTRY

The first temptation is to miraculously feed himself- is his ministry to be about himself or about others?
The second is to take power and authority over all the world—or to fulfill God's plan of service—"I came to serve, not to be served", Jesus said.
The third temptation is about grandstanding—by jumping off the Temple—or to minister to lowly and outcasts.
