Parish Vision: Christlike relationships of friendship and faith, valuing one another and sharing our gifts for the good of all

A NEW TEACHING ON “WHO IS MY NEIGHBOUR”

Today's gospel, the parable of the Good Samaritan gives us a very distinctive teaching of Jesus—without this parable, Christianity would be something else. The parable is so familiar to us that it has lost its punch, unless we stand in the shoes of the audience who heard Jesus speak the parable for the first time.

THE CONTEXT OF THE STORY

Jesus situates the story on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho—a two day journey on foot, on a narrow, dangerous road. The traveller had been robbed, beaten and left to die.

We remember the bitter, even murderous animosity between Catholics and Protestants in Northern Ireland. In Jesus' day, there was hatred based on religious allegiance between the Jews and the Samaritans. They despised each other because they regarded each other as heretics who had betrayed the religious tradition of Moses.

THREE CHARACTERS IN THE STORY

The first two men to come across the injured man were a Priest and a Levite. Both had sacred duties to perform within the Temple. To touch a dead person or a bleeding person would make them ritually unclean to perform their duties. One's ritual obligations to God must surely be put first they thought.

The behaviour of the Samaritan is the greatest shock of all. Jesus' listeners would have been repelled by the very idea of a Samaritan taking hold of a Jew, handling him, bathing him, lifting him onto his horse and finally paying for his care.

THE LESSON FOR US

We must not be constrained by the cultural and religious expectations of one's peer group; rather we must be open to the ways of God. God's goodness to us and our goodness to one another can only have one measure: God's love for us. This is the new commandment: that we love one another as he has loved us.

HEALING OTHERS

For Jesus, everyone needed to be treated in a neighbourly fashion because everyone bears wounds to some degree or another.

Pope Francis took up this theme when preaching on St Thomas the Apostle. Jesus invited Thomas to touch his wounds. Pope Francis said that Our Lord is constantly inviting us to touch the wounds in the body of humanity. Often this can involve a challenge to overcome every prejudice, every bigotry, every labelling which places someone outside our concern.

We presently have the unparalleled crisis of millions of refugees seeking refuge from war, poverty or famine.

Closer to home, Catholic Social Services Australia are working overtime in this freezing winter. “As the temperature plummets people sleeping rough need a safe place to sleep, a warm meal and a hot shower more than ever”. The fastest group of homeless are women over 55.

Our Prayerful Sympathy

We offer to Vincent Calleja and his children Sarah and Anthony as his wife of 43 years, Margaret entered eternal life aged 73 years after a very short illness on 3 July. #59 UPDATE: GENERAL LITURGICAL GUIDELINES COVID-19 Implications for the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne

"All Catholics in Melbourne continue to be dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass until further directed by the Archbishop."

All guidelines are clearly explained on the website:

melbournecatholic.org/covid-19-guidelines

"Holy Communion may be distributed to the faithful under both species (i.e., the Sacred Host and Precious Blood)." Is listed under the Liturgical Considerations.

In response to this directive our Liturgy Team in consultation with our parish Risk Management have decided that Eucharist will continue to be distributed under the one form of the Sacred Host. This guideline will be reviewed after the winter season.

The parish continues to update the COVID Safe Plan regularly.

Second Collection: "Your Financial Support enables us to Baptise around 120, provide First Eucharist for around 128 and Confirmation for 110 people each year. Thank you"

Our parish is committed to the Safety, Wellbeing and Dignity of all, including children and vulnerable adults.
