THE COST OF BEING A COMMITTED FOLLOWER

Our gospel this Sunday continues Jesus' teaching as he moves towards Jerusalem where he expects increasing opposition.

A key detail we may not notice is Luke writing: "Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them" (Luke 14:25). There are seven occasions in Luke's gospel where Jesus turns and praises the believing centurion (7:9), the penitent woman (7:41), the denying Peter (22:61), the woman at the cross (23:28) and others. In short, Jesus turns whenever confronted with weak or failing faith in order to restore and perfect it.

SEMITIC LANGUAGE

Semitic languages used by Jesus lack some of the more subtle expressions of modern idioms. In Hebrew, to hate, is the opposite of 'to prefer'. There is no word for loving someone slightly less, we are not to hate all, rather we must love all things less than we love God. We must love God first. We are also called to love others.

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP

This is the basis of Jesus' teaching in the gospel passage. As well as turning to the crowds, Jesus is also addressing those who are already accompanying him to an even deeper commitment and intimacy. Three conditions for discipleship are given here: subordination of everything, even family, to commitment to Jesus; acceptance of the cross, in intimation of Jesus; and relinquishment of all possessions in order to possess and be possessed by Christ alone. Jesus is very serious and uncompromising. He has come to bring the kingdom of God. We need God and his reigning presence in our lives which makes sense of life, love and death. To carry one's own cross like Jesus is to respond totally to the call of the Father: "Whoever does the will of God is my brother, sister and mother." (Mark 3:35)

TWO PARABLES

The first is about a man who begins to build a tower and did not work out the cost of building and was made fun of by others. He is a symbol of impetuousness and bloated self-regard. The second parable is about a battle-bound king who is prudent and is not rashly judging about attacking another king with a greater army, instead he sues for peace.

160TH ANNIVERSARY

This month it is 160 years since the Shire of Bulla was established in 1852. It is also 160 years since the First Mass was celebrated in our area in the homes at Oaklands Junction led by Fr Patrick Dunne who used to come on horseback from Coburg. Among the houses was the Fanning family home in Powlett Street in Sunbury. From 1860, Mass was moved from homes when OLMC school opened.

FATHER JAMES FEENAN

Was our ninth Parish Priest from 19733 to 1977. Born in Ireland in 1926, he was ordained and came to Melbourne in 1956. He set up a Parish Education Board to investigate the need for another church and school as Sunbury was beginning to grow with the opening of the Tullamarine airport in 1970. He arranged the purchase of land in Stewart's Lane. Fr Jim retired in 1990 and entered eternal life three years ago on 3rd September.

SUPPORTING RETIRED PRIESTS

Our Melbourne Archdiocese has 94 retired priests who have served us generally about 50 years in parishes. Of the number, 49 are aged 80 years and more. Caring for these priests is a large cost. Hence our annual collection in all Melbourne Parishes today.

MEETINGS THIS WEEK

Wed 7 Sept 7.30pm Baptism Preparation
 7.30pm Knights of the Southern Cross

St Anne' Church
 Parish Centre

Child Protection Week 4-10 September 2022: In 2022, National Child Protection Week will continue to embrace the overarching message that 'Every child, in every community, needs a fair go'. In particular, this year we will be shining a light on children growing up safe and supported. Children and young people thrive when they grow up safe, connected and supported in their family, community and culture.

They have the right to grow up in environments that support them according to their needs, now and into the future.

This year let's talk about how we create a supportive environment for every child.

National Child Protection Week will be looking at what works to keep children safe and supported.

We know that too many children are not growing up safe and supported and that Child Protection systems are overloaded. There are many opportunities to change the trajectory for these children.

We can stop child abuse and neglect – and reduce its impact – by working together to make sure every child in every community has a fair go.

Safeguarding Sunday: 11 September 2022: The Catholic Church in Australia marks Safeguarding Sunday, on which we pray for those who have been abused, their families and supporters. We recognise and apologise for the harm done by priests, religious and lay people in Church settings. Rebuilding trust and confidence in the Church requires constant work and vigilance. We recommit to cultural change that will help the Church be a place where people feel safe and supported.

Parish Child Safeguarding

Our Parish will be hosting a ThinkUKnow presentation on September 7 at 6pm in our Parish Centre and all parents, carers and teachers are encouraged to attend. ThinkUKnow Australia is an evidence based education program delivered nationally to prevent online child sexual exploitation. ThinkUKnow Australia is a partnership between the Australian Federal Police, Microsoft Australia, Datacom and the Commonwealth Bank of Australia. The program is delivered in collaboration with policing partners New South Wales Police Force, Northern Territory Police, Queensland Police, South Australia Police, Tasmania Police, Western Australia Police as well as Neighbourhood Watch Australasia. The presentation will be delivered by Graham Higgerson, an industry volunteer. The presentation is pro-technology and addresses topics including self-generated child abuse material, online grooming, image-based abuse, sexual extortion, and importantly encourages help seeking behaviour. This is a fantastic opportunity for you to learn more about young people and the online environment, and how you can help them to be safe and responsible users of technology.
