GOD, BE MERCIFUL TO ME

Today's gospel is about the way in which we come before God in prayer. It is the tax collector, whose simple prayer is 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner' who goes home at rights with God. In this simple prayer, the tax collector recognises he is not in a right relationship with God and asks for mercy. Luke's gospel depicts the model of faith in which one recognises their need for God's loving mercy and asks for it. By contrast, the Pharisee represents those who are assured of their own rightness by comparing themselves with others to make themselves righteous and justified. The contrast is more acute when we look at the situation of Palestine in Jesus' time. Tax collectors were despised as they extorted ferocious taxes from the local community. Tax collectors were used by the Roman occupying army. No wonder the tax collector stayed close to the back door for a hasty retreat.

WAS THE TAX COLLECTOR A SINNER?

The parable gives no answer to this question. Maybe he was trapped in an occupation making him a sinner in his own eyes and those of his neighbours—with a family to support and no other job possibilities. In the end, he went home with God's favour. In our complex world, the application of general moral rules and norms to individual lives requires sympathy and pastoral understanding of the pressures and burdens most people have to bear. The divine impulse is always towards acceptance, mercy and liberation.

TRUE HUMILITY

For far too long we have thought humility meant putting ourselves down, pretending we were nobodies, worthy of nothing. This is not Christian humility. Being humble does not mean we hide or minimise our God-given gifts, talents or resources. It means we honour others by sharing them, enabling them to benefit from the goodness of God. Humility comes from the Latin word, humus, meaning 'clos to the earth'. The tax collector lived close to the earth and so he was open to conversion, to being lifted up by God. The Pharisee was so successful at being religious he was closed to conversion. He had altitude sickness from taking the high moral ground. Most of us find ourselves in between these extremes.

OUR SALVATION IS A GIFT

In the early Church, a heretic called Pelagius placed a great importance on doing good deeds and thereby being right-before God like the Pharisee. This false practice was condemned by the Church as false as we don't save ourselves, no matter how many prayers we pray. We pray and act generously as a 'Thank you' to God who has given us the gift of Jesus for our salvation.

Sacrament of Confirmation 2022

On Sunday 9 October, 125 children of our Parish received the Sacrament of Confirmation from Bishop Terry Curtin and Father Kevin at two Masses. Congratulations to the candidates and to their parents and teachers. The organisation for such an event when we filled the Cathedral requires a lot of work from our Parish workers, our altar servers, the Salesian Cantor Choir and Cathedral staff. We thank Bishop Terry for visiting the students at school and for his time on 9 October.
