JOHN THE BAPTIST - A MESSIANIC FORERUNNER ON THIS SUNDAY OF JOY

Our Sunday gospel opens with John the Baptist in prison. He may be having doubts - is Jesus the Messiah or will someone else come? Doubts can be part of our faith journey.

Jesus answered, "Go back and tell John what you hear and see; the blind see again, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised to life and the Good News is proclaimed to the poor". John has been God's prophet, prepared to accept his talk, cost him what it may - he is imprisoned for upsetting the religious leaders. He is not a prince dressed in fine clothes.

THE LEAST IN THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

In light of the above, Jesus' closing words are all the more surprising. The Baptist fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah of being a forerunner. Despite the greatness of the figure of the Baptist, the disciple associated with Jesus is superior. The 'least in the kingdom of heaven' is associated with Jesus in the greater mission of bringing hearing and sight, of giving power back to the legs of the lame, and above all proclaiming the Good News to the poor.

We are not preparing the messianic era - we belong to it.

THE GREATNESS OF MODERN DISCIPLES

Following the example of John the Baptist, we can praise God for calling and gracing the great people of our sacred history. They have remained firm to their call, and 'made straight the paths of the Lord.'

I recall the Irish brothers, priests and sisters who came to Australia as missionaries in the early days when they never expected to visit their family and homeland again.

I think of Br Pat Howley F.M.S who entered his eternal reward recently aged 96 years. He spent 46 years teaching and serving in East Timor, Papua New Guinea and Solomons. He introduced ways of restorative justice to bring peace to fighting tribes. The UN invited him to speak at an International Conference.

I think of Sr Mary O'Shannassy, SGS, Victorian Director of Prison Ministry, who aged in her 80's still visits prisoners.

We have other volunteers like Vinnies.

This is 'good news' which encourages and challenges us.

THE COLOUR OF ROSE

The joy that is such a distinctive feature of the Advent season comes to the fore on the Third Sunday. The first reading from the prophet Isaiah with his joyous vision of a new creation which is echoed in Jesus' words: the blind will see again, lepers are cleansed and the Good News is proclaimed to the poor. Our first reading finishes:

"They will come to Zion shouting for joy, everlasting joy on their faces".

Rose is the colour of joy.

OUR NEW PRIESTS

Among the three new priests ordained in Melbourne last month, two of them spent the pastoral formation period in our Parish. Now they have been appointed to serve in these parishes: Fr Vinh Do in the Parish of Balwyn North and Kew East with three churches and Fr Huy Nguyen in the Werribee Parish with two churches.

We ask the Lord to bless them in their new ministry.

Vinnie's Service Awards

This week Vinnie's have awarded four of our parishioners "Vinnie's Service Awards" in recognition of the time and energy spent serving the people of Sunbury. We congratulate and thank them most sincerely for their commitment.

Philomena Laird – 40 years

Ann Chircop – 20 years

Anita Armstrong – 5 years

Sarah Honner – 2 years

Thank You! Your support of this year's Appeal for World Mission Sunday enables Church workers in 1047 mission dioceses to offer Good News to their local communities. Thank you for contributing to the amount of $1,209.60 which was raised by Our Lady of Mount Carmel community for Catholic Mission. Our partnership with local churches in over 160 countries is dependent upon the prayerful and financial support of many. Through your contribution, communities in Ethiopia look forward with hope, with easier access to health, educational and spiritual resources. THANK YOU.
