The Beatitudes ... A Call to Action

In this liturgical year, Year A, we focus on readings from Matthew's Gospel. Matthew writes towards the end of the first century AD, for a Christian community comprised of Jewish converts. In his gospel, he strives to demonstrate for them how Jesus is the fulfilment of the faith, hopes and promises of their Jewish faith, the fulfilment of all that is in "the law and the prophets" (Mt 5:17).

The reading from Matthew's Gospel is arguably the most famous and oft-quoted of all passages in the New Testament. It is known as The Sermon on the Mount or The Beatitudes (Blessed are they ...). It is Matthew's masterful summary of Jesus' teachings.

The passage follows not long after Matthew's account of Jesus' early public life and the call of the first disciples. Matthew gives a brief description of Jesus' activity: "He went round the whole of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom and curing all kinds of diseases and sickness among the people" (Mt 4:23).

In this one verse, Matthew effectively summarises the ministry of Jesus: teaching and healing. Jesus teaches with extraordinary authority, interpreting the Torah for his Jewish followers, and he heals the sick and afflicted, lifting the burden of suffering. These two dimensions of his ministry – teaching and healing – are inextricably linked and intertwined. His teaching offers healing and his healing expresses his teaching.

Matthew tells us that, on this occasion, Jesus goes up the mountain, draws his disciples to him, and sits down (as Rabbis do) and teaches them. His going up the mountain reminds us of Moses who went up the mountain of Mount Sinai to receive the Ten Commandments. This teaching is as important as that!

"Blessed (i.e., happy, fortunate) are they who . . ." Jesus repeats nine times, each time noting the God-given blessing that is the corresponding reward for those who act in that way. With these Beatitudes, Jesus effectively instructs his disciples on the nature of true holiness and the promise of true happiness. The Beatitudes reflect the merciful and compassionate character of God as revealed by Jesus (and as expressed in the Psalm). And they articulate the attitudes, values and spirit of the way of life we are to live and the way we are to act as Jesus' disciples in our care and concern for each other, our fellow human beings, and indeed all creation.

The list of Beatitudes is not like the list of the Ten Commandments, a definitive list of commands (Thou shalt not . . .). Rather, they are commendations for a way of living, of being in the world, of caring for others, especially the sick, powerless, poor and afflicted.

Our gospel reading challenges us to reflect on our attitudes and values in the light of Jesus' teaching and his compassion for all those in need of healing.

PRAYING FOR OUR SISTERS AND BROTHERS WHO ARE SICK AND THE FRAIL.

A feature of every Parish Bulletin I have ever seen is a list of parishioners who are sick or whose health is frail. Naturally we reach out in loving prayerful concern when friends, family and neighbours are unwell. Those of us who are unwell are on a journey through illness to long term care or recovery or drawing near to the end of life. Our Bulletin Prayer list should reflect this. To make sure that it up to date, I propose that:

* Names offered for the Prayer List remain for no more than the two months.

* Family can contact the Parish Office or speak to the Parish Priest or Deacon at the Liturgy to have the name either removed or kept on the List for a further two months and so let the Parish know how the journey of their illness is progressing. Denis Stanley, Parish Priest

We joyfully welcome Georgia & Hugh SKID-MORE who will be baptized in our parish

PRAYERFUL CONCERN FOR CREATION

A selection of prayers that you may weave into your personal prayer for the gift of seasonal weather for the well being of us all.

That God, who waters the earth and makes it fruitful, may send gentle and abundant rain to refresh the soil, fill our rivers, and restore the balance of nature. We pray to the Lord.

That families, farmers, and communities struggling with dry land and failing crops may find relief, hope, and the support they need. We pray to the Lord.

For Australia and its people in this time of drought, for those on farms and in rural areas deprived of harvests and livestock, livelihood and hope. May God send rain to water the earth and help for those in need. We pray to the Lord.

SERVING OUR COMMUNITY

"Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover." Many thanks to all those who generously offered their time and talents to serve as sacristans preparing for the 5.30pm Vigil Mass and 10.30am Mass. It is one of those simple but important ministries that enables the worthy and joyful celebration of the Parish Eucharist, "the source and summit" of our life together

RCIA - RITE OF ACCEPTANCE

On Sunday, 8 February at 10.30am Mass, we will celebrate the Rite of Acceptance of those catechumens & candidates moving toward sacraments of initiation & Reception into Full Communion into the Catholic Church at this coming Easter. If you do not come to the 10.30 Mass, this is the day to come, to support enthusiastically our catechumens & candidates.

MORNING TEA

After 8:30am Mass this morning, hosted by the Bingo Team. Please stop for a cuppa and a chat.

FROM YOUR PARISH COORDINATING TEAM (PCT)

1. A new school year begins. The PCT wishes our school communities - teachers, support staff, students, parents, grandparents and others, a safe and welcoming return to school in 2026. We pray this school year will be one of joy, wonderful learning experiences, peace and compassion.

2. From the Sunbury Winter Shelter (St Anne's Team) The shelter continues to look for a new, permanent home to offer winter accommodation. In the meantime, if a vulnerable person does cross your path today, why not REACH OUT and have a chat. Giving of your time and maybe a coffee, rather than money, is so appreciated. With their permission, ask for their name and mobile number. You and they are encouraged to call 0497 216 118 for immediate and more targeted assistance from Sunbury Winter Shelter (SWS) 9 am to 5 pm, every day.
